

Application for Admission

Dear Prospective Parents and Guardians, Assalam Alaykum

Thank you for your interest in applying for a place at Quwwat ul Islam Girls School.

Quwwat ul Islam Girls School was established in August 2003. Since this time, the school has grown not only in numbers but the academic standing of the school is at an excellent standard. We have a high ratio of qualified and experienced teachers.

In September 2005 the school was extended to cater for Secondary pupils also. In 2010 Quwwat- UI- Islam Girls' School entered pupils for GCSEs for the first time and our students performed exceptionally well with 100% gaining 5 A* - C grades in 7 subjects including English, Maths and Science. Since then our students have been performing well above the national average.

The school's admission includes Reception to Year 11. Our lessons incorporate the National Curriculum Subjects as well as a strategic Islamic educational program within a nurturing Islamic environment. Your daughter will, InshaAllah, leave Quwwat ul Islam Girls' School with the knowledge, maturity and confidence to face a bright and successful future.

Quwwat ul Islam Girls' School celebrates diversity and welcomes applications from children of all faiths and backgrounds.

We look forward to receiving your application.

The Admissions Procedure:

At Quwwat ul Islam Girls' School we ensure that outstanding standards of education are met by maintaining small class sizes. This ensures that teachers are able to maximise teaching time and give personalised attention to all pupils. In each class, we will only ever admit up to 25 pupils (and only 24 pupils in Reception).

All applicants must submit two references alongside your application. One will be from a current school or nursery (play group), and the other from a registered religious establishment that can verify that the family is known to them or that religious organisation.

Your daughter will be added to the waiting list once we have received the application. If a space becomes available and your daughter is next on the waiting list, the family will be invited for an interview. All applicants will be required to sit some form of admissions test, depending on the year group. All parents will also be asked to meet the Head Teacher for an informal meeting during that time.

Successful applicants are offered places subject to the payment of the first instalment of the fees, which should be made within two weeks of the offer.

Please complete all sections of the form, and carefully read the declaration before signing and returning the form. We are unable to process incomplete forms, so please ensure all the information is correct and up-to-date.

Dear Referee,

The parent(s) have applied for admission into Quwwat ul Islam Girls School.

I would kindly appreciate if you can verify how long you have known the parents and/or the child in question.

Are the parents in regular attendance at your place of worship, and if they are currently active within your religious establishment.

Is the child known as a participant in any of the activities offered at your place of worship?

The ethos of our school is based on Islamic principles, is there any reason that you believe that the family will have difficulty adhering to these philosophies?

Declaration for Parents

In acceptance of a place for my daughter, (name).....
I, (name of parent/guardian) agrees to follow school policy in every regard. This includes (but is not exclusive to) adhering to rules and guidelines regarding attendance, punctuality, behaviour, homework, uniform, etiquette, and discipline. I agree to support the school in implementing its policies and procedures at all times*

I agree to pay the school fees by stated deadlines. I understand that by failing to meet these deadlines, I will be subject to administration fees and that persistent non-payment may jeopardise my daughter's place at the school. I understand that as a fee-paying school with no financial support from the State, Quwwat Ul Islam Girls' School relies on the timely payment of fees. I understand that all fees are non-refundable or non-transferable.

I agree to support Quwwat Ul Islam Girls' School in its values and ethos.

I agree to support my daughter fully in meeting the expectations placed upon her by the school and by the Education Authority's Compulsory Education requirements.

I understand that Quwwat Ul Islam Girls' School operates a Zero-Tolerance Policy, and that inappropriate or threatening behaviour towards any staff member or pupil will result in swift and appropriate action.

If my daughter fails to meet the standards set by the school (in attendance, punctuality, behaviour, conduct etc.) the school retains the right to refuse re-admission for the following academic year.

I understand that if I wish to remove my child from the school, I will be required to pay any outstanding fees before she can be taken off roll. Please note that pupils still on roll at our school will not be allowed to be admitted to any other school. Parents must notify the school a whole half term in advance before a parent wishes to take a child out of the school.

New admissions to Secondary School: I understand that on admission, my daughter is subject to a probationary period of one term. If during this time my daughter does not meet the behavioural expectations of the school, she may be asked to leave the school.

In this instance, any fees paid (including those made in advance of deadlines) will not be refundable or non-transferable.
