

Invitation: Open Evening

Children and parents will have the opportunity to attend an Open Evening on Wednesday 18th October 2023.

The poster features a vibrant orange and yellow background. At the top center is the school's logo, which includes a stylized minaret and the text 'قوة الإسلام' and 'QUWWAT-UL-ISLAM GIRLS' SCHOOL'. To the right, the word 'QUIZS' is written vertically in a grey box. The main title 'OPEN EVENING' is written in large, white, brush-stroke style letters. Below this, the date 'WEDNESDAY 18 October 2023' is displayed in white, and the time '5pm - 7pm' is in yellow. A list of activities is provided in white and yellow text. On the right side, there are two small photographs: one showing students in a computer lab and another showing a girls' sports team on a field. At the bottom right is a cartoon illustration of a girl in a hijab holding a trophy. The contact information is at the bottom left, and the school's address is at the bottom.

Measles

Measles cases are rising across the country, with over 102,000 children starting primary school in England being at risk of catching the disease. Measles is highly infectious and if left unvaccinated nine out of ten children in an early years setting can catch the disease if just one child is infectious.

The Back to school MMR Guidance from the NHS includes information about measles and how to get vaccinated. This can be found on the following website:

Absences before or after a school holiday

If your child is absent before or after a school holiday, you must provide evidence explaining the absence. This may be medical evidence if your child is unwell or evidence of flight delays or circumstances beyond your control.

Without this evidence you risk being issued with a penalty notice.
