School ethos

Our Mission and Vision

At Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' School, we aim to provide sound Islamic Education through our Islamic Studies curriculum in a caring environment, by nurturing future generations in becoming confident Muslims prepared for life in modern day Britain.

We aim to provide a spiritual learning environment modelled on the Sunnah of our beloved Prophet Muhammed (S.A.W). Therefore, empowering our students to take personal responsibility for themselves, their environment and others in the community as true flag bearers of the Ummah.

Every child will be taught to recognise and instill values that work hand in hand with our Islamic and British values. Students will learn to encompass Prophetic values such as: love, responsibility, respect, perseverance, self-discipline and courage.

Our curriculum includes a clear focus on the development of Faith - Iman - Knowledge - Ilm and Excellence - Ihsan. This ethos includes the daily teaching of Islamic studies and Qur'anic studies with a focus on our key learning drivers;

'Caring for ourselves, Caring for our world, Caring for our wider community'.

FAQ's

1. Will there be an increase in fee?

There will be no increase in fees in regards to this particular change.

2. Will this be sufficient for my child if I do not send them to Madrasah?

Yes! The daily two hours will work just like a Madrasah environment nurturing your child's Islamic knowledge and character. (However on a side note, please consult your child's teacher to understand your child's level and whether extra support is required).

3. How many hours of Qur'an and Islamic Studies will my child study in a week?

One hour of Islamic Studies per day and one hour of Qur'an per day. Making it a total of 5 hours of Islamic Studies and 5 hours of Qur'an per day.

4. Will my child complete the Qur'an?

If your child has started from Reception it is certain that InshaAllah she will complete the Qur'an. If your daughter starts from KS1 or KS2, staff will work hard to push them towards completing the Qur'an by year 11 InshaAllah. If your daughter starts from KS3, depending on her Qur'anic recitation skills, she will be placed in the appropriate group. We will assist your daughter to improve her Tajweed skills allowing her to progress proficiently in her recitation.

Introduction

At Quwwat ul Islam Girls' School, we are introducing a conclusive Islamic Studies curriculum, designed to meet the requirements of all students. There will be an hour of Islamic Studies and an hour of Qur'anic Studies on a daily basis. We have combined the 'Islamiyyah Series' and the 'An-Nasihah' curriculum as they both provide every child the true essence and love for Islam. The lessons are interactive and include brilliant illustrations, making the understanding of our beautiful deen easier and enjoyable for our students.

Through using the 'Islamiyyah Series' for Reception to Year 3 and the 'An-Nasihah Series' from Years 4-11, it will allow us to fulfill the great responsibility that rests upon our shoulders of developing our students into successful young ambassadors for the Ummah.

All topics within this curriculum meets the demand of every child of every ability in accordance to their academic year. Children will be taught in a friendly manner to increase in their love for Allah SWT and the Prophet (s). This Islamic Studies curriculum will allow our students to learn the beautiful teachings of Islam in a fun and interactive way.

May Allah increase us in our knowledge and practice of Islam and make these books beneficial and full of blessings.

Curriculum

The Islamic curriculum objectives will be successfully achieved as our teaching and learning encompasses a number of extra curricular activities such as assemblies, specific topic-based learning, daily congregational prayers and a comprehensive curriculum delivered from Reception to Year 11. To further enhance students Islamic knowledge and understanding, Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' school will be implementing the, Islamic Studies iGCSE in Year 10.

As part of our curriculum change, we have introduced a robust method of teaching the Qur'an. Our students will be taught the basic rules of Tajweed and revisit them throughout each year in greater detail.

Our aim is to ensure your child leaves our school reciting the Qur'an to a high efficient standard. Students will be guided towards achieving this goal through interactive based Qur'an and Tajweed lessons.

Lastly, our curriculum has been developed in a way that will allow your child to attend Madrasah and School within a school day. We understand that through this pandemic we have come to realise the true importance of spending time with our loved ones. Ultimately, we believe this will allow you and your child to spend more valuable time at home together.

Resources

The 'An Nasihah' book consists of seven subjects. They include corresponding workbooks with differentiated activities all referenced from authentic sources. All lessons are Dyslexia- friend.

The curriculum serves students from as young as the age of 4. Not many Madrasah's accept students as young as this. However, we at Quwwatul Islam believe that our Deen should be accessible for every child.

Curriculum content

How will your child develop and what will your child learn?

Every child at Quwwatul Islam Girl's school will learn the basic principles and foundation of Islam. Students will thereafter develop a high level of understanding on various topics as they develop further into each year, enhancing their Islamic Knowledge.

- ⇒ KS1 and KS2 will explore different principles of Islam from learning about who Allah is, to His wonderful Prophets.
- ⇒ KS3 and KS4 will focus on Tarikh (Islamic History), Aqa'id (beliefs), Akhlaaq and Adab (Islamic Character and etiquettes), Fiqh (rulings) Seerah and Ahadith.

Our students will receive a fruitful Islamic education in a holistic Madrasah environment. Staff will ensure that your child is given the best Tarbiyyah through our robust chosen Curriculum. With the aim of cultivating exemplary Islamic character, children will be well-grounded on Islamic fundamentals to foster a love for the religion, as well as the people around them to gain a valuable sense of community.

Pupils will be taught the Deen through practical discussions and examples, allowing them to have a fluent understanding of every topic they are taught.

Key Stage 2

Quranic Studies

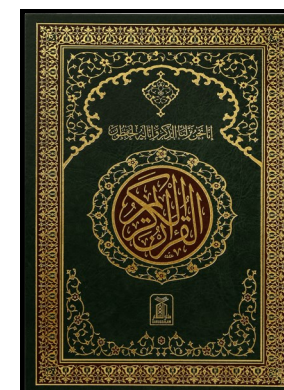

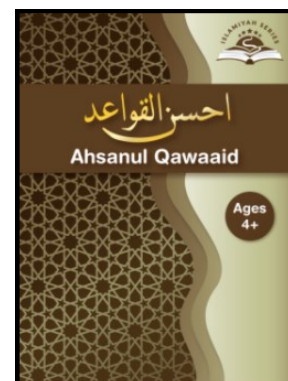

All pupils will be assessed and will be placed into the correct group according to their ability to recite.

There will be three groups:

- Foundation
- Intermediate
- Higher

Pupils will then be taught to develop skills in reciting the Quran alongside learning a combination of Tajweed rules through interactive lessons.

The recitation of the Holy Quran will be focused on a daily basis for
