Activity	Student Evidence/Feedback
P.E Yoga	  The Year 10s were enthusiastic in learning the yoga poses. Each student watched and attempted the stretches and many were able to master them. The girls all understood the importance of creating a calm and quiet atmosphere in order to clear the mind and unwind their body. Many of the students felt very relaxed after the session and also requested that yoga sessions be added to the school's extracurricular activities.

Assembly
Gangs:Myths and Realities

Year 10s enjoyed the assembly and feedback was 'As we are at a vulnerable age it is good that we ARE LEARNING ABOUT THE DANGERS AROUND US. I learnt how I could easily be coerced into joining a gang'

They interacted throughout the assembly on what dangers could befall them and questioned how they could avoid being easily manipulated.

Self Care/Hygiene
Face Scrub

The students found this activity very engaging and educational, as it taught them the importance of taking care of their health and their bodies. One student said, "We learnt alot about cleanliness and staying clean through creative tasks."

Another student said, "I enjoyed this lesson very much as it reminded me of how cleanliness is not only a part of your daily life, but also a part of our faith."

Citizenship/Self-awareness

Learned quite a lot and think it's beneficial to be learning about current events such as homelessness. It was very fun and I found it inspiring. It is interactive and informative. it is really nice and they enjoyed themselves

First Aid

Students were inspired by the medical students / street doctors and understood the importance of learning first aid in the rise of knife crime. They enjoyed the practicals and learning the different signs of injury and bleeding. Students were happy to learn the action steps (ASALERT) in case of emergency situations.
