Hadith of the Week: Abu Dharr said: "The Messenger of Allah said to me: 'Have Taqwa of Allah wherever you are, and follow an evil deed with a good one to wipe it out, and treat the people with good behavior.'" [Reported in Tirmidhi]

Assalamu'alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuhu

Dear Parent/Carers

I pray this finds you in the best of health and Imaan Insha'Allah.

On behalf of Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' school, we pray that you had a blessed Eid and enjoyed this special day with all your loved ones. May all our prayers be accepted, inshaAllah. On Monday, the students had a fun-filled day enjoying their Eid parties. Jazak Allah Khair to all the parents who donated food and drinks towards the parties. The students looked amazing in their beautiful Eid outfits!

We look forward to the Summer term ahead, where fun and exciting activities will take place to end the academic year. Also all our thoughts and prayers will be with our Year 6 and 11 students as they prepare for their exams.

Please note that the school will be closed for April Break from Monday 30th March 2026 - Friday 10th April 2026

Students will return on Monday 13th April 2026 at the usual start of 8.00am for SY and 8.15am for PY.

Kind Regards,
Mrs Member (Headteacher)

Achievements

Primary Muslimahs of the term

Muslimah of the term
EYFS

Maryam Ubayd

This term I have chosen Maryam as Muslimah of the term for the amazing effort and dedication that she has shown towards her studies. Maryam always shows perseverance when she finds something challenging, she will always try her best to complete the task to the best of her ability. She has a positive attitude and eagerness to learn and has grown in confidence as the term has progressed, making her a good role for her peers. Maryam has a lovely caring nature, and is always keen to help her peers and shows concern and care for them. Maryam has beautiful Akhlaq, and is well-mannered and soft-spoken towards everyone.

Well done Maryam!
May Allah swt bless and reward you for all your efforts and grant you success in all that you do, Ameen.

Muslimah of the term
Year 1

Iman Bougherara

This term I have chosen Iman as Muslimah of the term due to her outstanding dedication to her Islamic Studies lessons and the great improvement she has shown in her behaviour. Iman participates with enthusiasm when reciting her daily Adhkaar, Duas and Kalimas, and sets a positive example for her peers. She has become a driving force in the classroom, encouraging others and contributing to a focused and uplifting learning environment. Iman is a kind individual who speaks in a soft polite tone when interacting with her teachers and classmates. Iman stays focused in lessons and is considerate towards her peers demonstrating beautiful Akhlaq at all times. Well done Iman! May the Almighty grant you success in both-world, Ameen!

Muslimah of the term
Year 2

Rida Zainab

This term I have chosen Rida as Muslimah of the term for her outstanding behaviour this term. She is a hardworking and enthusiastic student who always tries her best. She shows beautiful Adab and Akhlaq, speaking kindly and behaving in a way that reflects strong Islamic manners. She is respectful towards her teachers and classmates, listens carefully, and follows instructions straight away. She is punctual, responsible, and completes her work with sincerity. She demonstrates a positive attitude in her learning. Her excellent behaviour and character make her a wonderful role model in our class, and she truly reflects the qualities of a good Muslim student.

Masha'Allah! Keep up the hard work Rida!
May Allah accept all her efforts and grant her success in both worlds, Ameen!

Muslimah of the term
Year 3

Samarah Hassan

This term I have chosen Samarah as Muslimah of the term because of the effort and positive attitude she has shown. She always takes part in lessons and is happy to contribute, showing that she is engaged and ready to learn. Samarah shows very good manners and speaks and behaves in a respectful way towards both her teachers and classmates. She listens carefully, follows instructions, and completes her work to the best of her ability.

She is kind and considerate to those around her, always treating her peers with respect. Samarah stays focused on her work and always tries her best in everything she does. She is thoughtful in the way she interacts with others and is always willing to help when needed. Her behaviour and attitude make her a lovely role model for others, and she is truly a pleasure to have in class. May Allah place barakah in your knowledge and grant you success in all that you do. Ameen!

Muslimah of the term
Year 4

Bareerah Kapodrawi

I have chosen Bareerah as Muslimah of the term due to her consistent and outstanding efforts shown throughout this past term. Bareerah is a diligent student, who endeavours to do her work to the best of her ability. She has a bright and enthusiastic character, displayed through her keenness to recall Prophet stories in great detail and her beautiful recitation of ahadith and dua's. Bareerah always ensures to implement the adab and akhlaq she learns about in class, making her an exemplary embodiment of what a good seeker of knowledge should strive to be. Bareerah participates in class discussions, often contributing her wonderful ideas to the class. She is also very thoughtful and helpful, aiding her peers when needed.

Overall, Bareerah shows great respect and care towards everything and everyone around her, and I am proud to be her teacher. May Allah grant you goodness in this world and the next, and continue to enlighten your heart with the love for the deen, Ameen!

Muslimah of the term
Year 5

Hafsah Choudhury

This term I have chosen Hafsah as Muslimah of the term because she is a dedicated and thoughtful student who consistently puts in effort to improve her learning. She approaches her studies with sincerity and a willingness to grow, always striving to complete her work to a good standard. Hafsah listens carefully in lessons and participates with interest, showing curiosity and engagement in her learning.

She is polite and courteous, treating both her teachers and classmates with respect. Her gentle and considerate nature makes her a valued member of the class, and she always tries to be helpful towards others. Hafsah conducts herself with dignity and kindness, reflecting the qualities of good akhlaq.

May Allah bless her with success, wisdom, and continuous growth in her studies and beyond. Ameen!

Muslimah of the term
Year 6

Aaliyah Achrafi

Aaliyah has earned the title of Muslimah of the Term through her consistent hard work, dedication, and admirable character. Throughout the term, Aaliyah has shown a sincere commitment to her learning and always approaches her lessons with focus and determination. Aaliyah demonstrates excellent manners and respect, and is becoming increasingly conscious of her behaviour and the impact of her actions of those around her. Aaliyah strives to do what is right to please her teachers, and reflects thoughtfully when she feels she may have done something that disappoints them. This shows the maturity which Aaliyah has developed.

Over time, Aaliyah has also grown in confidence as an independent learner, taking greater ownership of her work and her choices in the classroom. She accepts responsibility for her actions and continually tries to improve, reflecting a strong sense of self-awareness and personal growth. Aaliyah's positive attitude, perseverance, and willingness to learn from her experiences make her a fantastic role model for her peers, and we are very proud of the progress she has made this term.

Secondary Muslimahs of the term

Muslimah of the term Year 7

Sameeha Shajahan

This term I have chosen Sameeha as Muslimah of the term because of her exemplary character and outstanding commitment to her studies. Her peers consistently describe her as kind, generous, and considerate towards others. She demonstrates a strong sense of responsibility by submitting all her work punctually and maintaining a high standard in everything she undertakes. Sameeha is focused, diligent, and consistently strives for excellence. She conducts herself with respect and integrity, making her a valued and admirable member of her class. Her positive attitude and dedication serve as a commendable example to her peers.

May Allah continue to bless Sameeha with knowledge, grant her success in this life and the Hereafter, Ameen.

Muslimah of the term Year 8

Zaynab Kothia

This term I have chosen Zaynab Kothia as Muslimah of the term as she has displayed tremendous effort and dedication in her lessons. Zaynab's positive attitude shines bright in class and is an example for her classmates. Zaynab has pulled through even when tasks have been challenging and now has achieved her targets. This perseverance has specifically shined brightest in recent lessons.

May Allah allow you to continue flourishing in lessons and make content easy for you, and continue to guide you and keep you steadfast. May He accept all your hardwork and fill your learning journey with plenty of barakat. Ameen

Fatima Patel

This term I have chosen Fatima as muslimah for her dedication to the Qur'an and her commitment to Islamic Studies. Fatima is a polite, respectful, and very well-mannered student. She is attentive in class and always shows a positive attitude towards learning. Her conduct reflects beautiful manners and sincerity. Despite facing some ups and downs since the Autumn term, Fatima showed great strength and maturity. She took time for Islamic reflection, worked on improving herself, and has truly grown into a better version of herself. This shows her strong character and her willingness to learn not only academically but also spiritually. We are very proud of her efforts and the progress she has made. May Allah continue to guide her, strengthen her imaan, and bless her with success in her studies and in all aspects of her life.

May the Qur'an always be a source of guidance and light for her heart, Ameen!

Muslimah of the term Year 10

Nurulain Fatimah

This term I have chosen Nurulain as Muslimah of the term due to her dedication shown towards Quranic Studies. Nurulain is a kind and polite individual who is always attentive and participates in all aspects of the lesson. Nurulain completes all dua to the best of her ability and is wonderful role model for her class. Nurulain demonstrates beautiful Akhlaq at all times and is a perfect role model for her peers.

Well done, Nurulain, keep up the excellent work! May the Almighty grant you success in both worlds, Ameen!

Muslimah of the term Year 11

Silmi Hakee

This term I have chosen Silmi Hakee as Muslimah of the term because of her positive mindset this term. I have seen lots of improvement in Silmi's attitude to her learning where she is actively keeping her notes up to date, engaging in class discussions and asking her teachers for help when she needs assistance.

May Allah reward you and give you success for your efforts, Ameen!

Year 2 and 3 trip

Both Year 2 and Year 3 visited Stepney City Farm on Wednesday 25th March 2026 as part of their Science and Geography learning.

This exciting farm visit provided the children with the opportunity to develop their understanding of animal habitats and life cycles through first-hand experiences. In addition, the trip supported their learning in Geography by helping them explore where food comes from.

Year 6 trip

Year 6 visited The Clink Prison Museum on Wednesday 25th March 2026 as part of their History lessons on crime and punishment.

This exciting visit gave students the chance to explore the history of prisons and the justice system, facilitating a better understanding of the experiences of people in the past and how punishment has changed over time.

Virtue of Learning and Teaching:

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said: "The best among you (Muslims) are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it." (Sahih Al Bukhari, 5027)
