Hadith of the Week: Narrated Al-Miqdad ibn al-Aswad:

I swear by Allah, I heard the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) say: The happy man is he who avoids dissensions; happy is the man who avoids dissensions; happy is the man who avoids dissensions: but how fine is the man who is afflicted and shows endurance.
[Reported in Abi-Dawud]

Assalamu'alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuhu

Dear Parent/Carers,

I pray this message finds you and your families in the best of health and imaan, inshaAllah.

Alhamdulillah, we have reached the end of another successful academic year. Jazakum Allahu Khayran to all our students, parents, and staff for your dedication, commitment, and support throughout the year.

The achievements of our pupils would not have been possible without your continued encouragement and partnership. As teachers, we are delighted with the progress each student has made and are confident that they leave their year group as more knowledgeable, independent, and resilient learners.

As we look ahead to the new academic year, I extend a warm welcome to all the new students joining Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' School and to their families. It is an exciting time to become part of our school community, and we look forward to welcoming you all in September, inshaAllah.

On behalf of everyone at Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' School, we pray that you and your families enjoy a restful, safe, and blessed summer break. We look forward to welcoming everyone back on Thursday, 3rd September 2026, for the start of the new academic year, inshaAllah.

Kind regards,
Mrs Member (Headteacher)

Total amount raised
from our Funday:

On behalf of Quwwatul-Islam Girls' School, we would like to thank all the parents, volunteers, sponsors and staff for all your generosity and support in making our Funday a huge success! May Allah reward you all in abundance. Ameen.

Primary Muslimahs of the year

Muslimah of the Year EYFS Sofia Monir

I have chosen Sofia as Muslimah of the year for her incredible progress she has made from the beginning to the end of the year. She has worked exceptionally hard, consistently completed her homework on time, and always gives her best in everything she does. Sofia has a genuine passion for learning, eagerly embraces new challenges, and is always keen to expand her knowledge. She is kind, respectful, and caring towards her friends and teachers, always willing to help others, and regularly contributes thoughtful ideas during class discussions. One of her greatest strengths is her ability to apply what she learns in Islamic Studies to her everyday learning and behaviour, making meaningful connections and demonstrating strong Islamic values through her honesty, excellent manners, responsibility, and compassion. Sofia has shown outstanding growth in both her academic achievements and her character throughout the year, making her a wonderful role model for others.

May Allah (SWT) increase Sofia in beneficial knowledge and grant her success in all that she does, Ameen!

Muslimah of the Year Year 1 Fatimah Pirbhai

Fatimah has been nominated for Muslimah of the Year due to her beautiful Akhlaq shown throughout the academic year. Fatimah has been an exemplary student by consistently demonstrating outstanding behaviour and dedication towards learning. In particular, her commitment to achieving her potential in Islamic and Quranic Studies has been remarkable. Fatimah approaches each lesson with enthusiasm and a genuine passion for learning, setting a very good standard for her peers. Her respectful, kind and considerate demeanor, combined with her perseverance, has made her a role model for her classmates. Fatimah's positive attitude and hardwork are truly beautiful and inspiring to all who have the pleasure of working with her. Fatimah always has a beautiful smile on her face in her day to day life which can make your day.

Well done Fatimah! May the Almighty keep her smiling In sha Allah and grant her success in both worlds. Ameen!

Muslimah of the Year Year 2 Tasnia Hossain

I have chosen Tasnia as Muslimah of the year for amazing effort this year. She is a hard working, kind, and thoughtful student who always tries her best. She listens carefully during lessons, joins in with class discussions, and asks good questions that show she is eager to learn. Tasnia settles into class wonderfully and has made lovely friends, who enjoy spending time with her. Her adab and akhlaq are excellent: she is respectful, polite, and always considerate of others. Tasnia brings calmness, kindness, and positivity to the classroom every day. Well done Tasnia!

May Allah reward her efforts, increase her in beneficial knowledge, and fill her journey with happiness and success, Ameen!

Muslimah of the Year Year 3 Alayna Rahman

I have chosen Alayna as Muslimah of the year because she has shown excellent character throughout the year. She comes to class ready to learn, listens attentively, and always gives her best. She is respectful, polite, and treats everyone with kindness. She is always willing to ask questions when she is unsure and is happy to help others understand their work, especially when learning new du'as. She also always offers to help around the classroom, whether it is handing out resources, tidying up, or helping the teacher whenever needed. She participates well in class discussions, answers questions with confidence, and encourages those around her to do their best. She has shown consistency in both her effort and her behaviour.

Well Done, Alayna! Keep it up!

Muslimah of the Year Year 4 Zaynab Arsalan

Zaynab has been chosen for Muslimah of the Year due to her exceptional progress and development shown throughout the course of this last year. Zaynab has proven she can produce amazing work when focused, and has really striven to reach her full potential. She participates actively in class discussions, contributing meaningful ideas to the class. Zaynab puts in a lot of effort to meet the standards expected of her, and this has positively impacted her learning journey. Zaynab is very enthusiastic in lessons, and displays a positive attitude towards increasing her knowledge.

She has improved her relationships within the classroom as well, showing kindness and respect to those around her. Zaynab has a beautiful personality and radiant nature and I pray Allah SWT continues to bless her and help her in her ongoing development and keep her smiling throughout her life, Ameen!
Well done, Zaynab, we are very proud of you!

Muslimah of the Year Year 5 Nazia Alam

Nazia has been nominated for Muslimah of the Year due to her beautiful akhlaq and great resilience shown throughout the academic year. Nazia has been an exemplary student by consistently demonstrating excellent behaviour and dedication towards learning. In particular, her commitment to achieving her potential in Islamic and Quranic Studies has been remarkable. Nazia approaches each lesson with enthusiasm and a genuine passion for learning, setting a good standard for her peers. Her respectful, kind and considerate demeanor, combined with her perseverance, has made her a role model for her classmates. Nazia's positive attitude and hardwork are truly beautiful and inspiring to all who have the pleasure of working with her.

Well done Nazia, you were a pleasure to teach!
May the Almighty grant her success in both worlds, Ameen!

Muslimah of the Year Year 6 Atika Uddin

Atika has been chosen as Muslimah of the Year for her consistent exceptional standards of work and conduct throughout the year. Atika has shown a genuine enthusiasm for learning, which has contributed greatly to her spiritual and academic growth. Her thoughtful questions and insightful contributions during lessons demonstrate a deep interest in expanding her knowledge and understanding. Atika's respect for her teachers and her willingness to help others are admirable qualities that reflect her excellent character. Atika is a responsible student who can always be relied upon. She is helpful around the classroom, willingly assisting both her teachers and the class whenever needed. Her positive attitude and readiness to support others make her a valued member of the class. Atika recognised the importance of beginning each day with the morning adhkar and recited them daily with enthusiasm and dedication. May the Almighty grant her success in this world and the Hereafter, Ameen!

Hfdh Muslimah of the year

Muslimah of the Year
Hfdh
Saudah Tasneem

I have chosen Saudah as Muslimah of the Year because of her outstanding Aadaab and Akhlaaq throughout the year in Hfdh class.

Saudah has demonstrated excellent character and respect for her teachers and fellow students, and a sincere commitment to her Hfdh studies. She approaches her work with calmness and perseverance, always striving to do her best. Although she occasionally faces challenges, she never allows them to discourage her. Instead, she continues to work hard with determination and diligence. She has consistently shown kindness, patience, and a willingness to help her peers, making her a positive role model for others.

May Allah preserve the Qur'an in her heart, increase her in beneficial knowledge and grant her continued success in her Hfdh journey.

Aameen!

Secondary Muslimahs of the year

Muslimah of the Year
Year 7
Ishwaq Hassan

I have chosen Ishwaq as Muslimah of the Year because she is always kind, respectful, and helpful to everyone around her. She is always willing to support her peers, whether they need help with their work or simply someone to encourage them. Ishwaq treats others with kindness and patience, making everyone feel welcome and included.

Although everyone in the class works hard and tries their best, Ishwaq consistently goes the extra mile to help others without expecting anything in return. She sets a wonderful example through her good manners, positive attitude, and caring nature. Her actions reflect the values of Islam, and she inspires those around her to be kind and considerate.

As Ishwaq's journey at Quwwat comes to an end, we wish her all the very best for the future. May Allah (SWT) continue to bless her with good character, increase her in knowledge, strengthen her iman, guide her on the straight path, and grant her success in this life and the Hereafter. May He protect her, keep her steadfast in her faith, and make her a source of goodness wherever she goes. Ameen.

Muslimah of the Year
Year 8
Nada Laadjal Adjal

I have chosen Nada as Muslimah of the Year in recognition of her consistently outstanding standards of work, exemplary conduct, and dedication throughout the year. She has approached every aspect of her learning with sincerity, enthusiasm, and a genuine desire to seek knowledge, which has greatly contributed to both her academic progress and her spiritual development. Her eagerness to learn is evident in the thoughtful questions she asks and the insightful contributions she makes during lessons, reflecting a deep curiosity and a sincere commitment to understanding her studies on a meaningful level. She is an exceptionally respectful and well-mannered student who always treats her teachers and classmates with kindness, courtesy, and consideration. She is dependable, responsible, and trustworthy, consistently demonstrating maturity. She can always be relied upon to carry out tasks with care and is quick to offer assistance whenever it is needed, whether supporting her teachers with classroom responsibilities or helping her peers with patience and generosity. Her positive attitude, humility, and willingness to serve others make her a valued and much-loved member of the class. One of Nada's qualities is her commitment to strengthening her relationship with Allah. She recognises the importance of beginning each day with the Athkar and Ya'um/Kahf consistently with enthusiasm, sincerity, and dedication. Her excellent character, strong work ethic, and desire to practise her faith are qualities that truly set her apart. She has been a wonderful role model for her classmates, inspiring those around her through both her actions and her attitude.

May Allah, the Almighty, continue to bless Nada with beneficial knowledge, steadfastness, and success in this world and the Hereafter, and make her among those who are pleasing to Him, Ameen!

Muslimah of the Year
Year 9
Asma Pirbhai

I have chosen Asma as Muslimah of the year because she is an outstanding example of a young Muslimah. Asma is an intelligent, hardworking and dedicated student who has a genuine love for Islam. She works hard in class, prepares well for her exams, and has shown excellent commitment by learning all her duas with care and effort. What makes Asma truly special is her passion for Islamic knowledge. She enjoys Islamic reading, benefits from tafseer books, and always shows a beautiful interest in understanding the deen more deeply. In class, she participates thoughtfully and often shares interesting stories, hadith, and reflections that add meaning to the lesson discussion. Asma also has a beautiful personality. Her modesty, shyness, piety and gentle character are qualities that make her stand out. She brings a calm, positive and uplifting presence to the classroom, like a shining star that brightens every lesson. For her hard work, beautiful manners, love for learning, and sincere passion for Islam, Asma is truly deserving of the Muslimah of the Year Award.

May Allah bless her, increase her in knowledge and make her a flagbearer of Islam, Ameen.

Muslimah of the Year
Year 10
Khadeejah Bint-kamal

I have chosen Khadeejah as Muslimah of the year because of her beautiful akhlaaq and great work. Khadeejah has been an exemplary student by consistently demonstrating excellent behaviour and dedication towards learning. In particular, her commitment to achieving her potential in Islamic and Quranic Studies has been remarkable. She memorised all her duas and all surah al baqarah. Her respectful and kind, has made her a role model for her classmates. Khadeejah's positive attitude and hardwork are truly amazing.

Well done Khadeejah, you were a pleasure to teach!
May the Almighty grant her success in both worlds, Ameen!

Allah loves when one of you is given a task, that he or she does it in the most excellent manner (Ihsaan)

Year 6 Residential

Last week, the Year 6 students had a fantastic opportunity to take part in a Residential Trip to Chigwell Row. The trip offered a range of unique experiences and learning opportunities; the chance to break away from everyday routine and experience adventure, discovery and personal growth.

Chigwell Row had extensive facilities which included a range of challenging activities to ensure the students had a fantastic time. Over the three days, they were given the opportunity to participate in outdoor activities and team building challenges to help develop their confidence and ability to work well as part of a team.

Activities included:

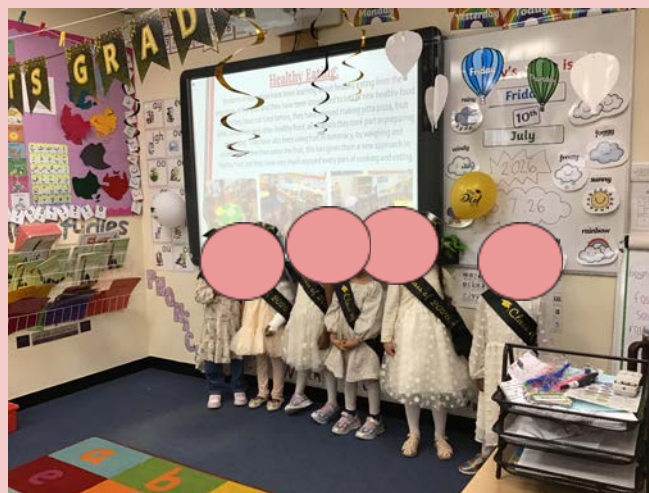

1. Zip Lining
2. Rock Climbing
3. Water Zorbing
4. Body Zorbing
5. Camp Fire & Story Time
6. Evening Walk
7. Archery
8. Crate Challenge
9. Team Building Challenge
10. Memory game

Nursery and EYFS Graduation

Our Nursery and EYFS children celebrated their graduation on Monday with a wonderful performance, proudly showcasing everything they have achieved throughout the year. They then took part in a special graduation ceremony, where their teachers presented each child with their certificate in recognition of their hard work and accomplishments.

The celebrations continued with a delightful party, giving everyone the chance to mark this special milestone together. We are incredibly proud of each and every child and wish them all the very best as they begin their next exciting chapter!

Year 6 SATs results

We were excited to receive some wonderful news about the achievements of our current Year 6 pupils in this year's SATs.

These exceptional results reflect the hard work, determination and resilience of our pupils, alongside the dedication of our talented staff and the continued support of our parents and carers. Every pupil has worked incredibly hard throughout the year, and we are immensely proud of all they have accomplished.

These outstanding outcomes are a wonderful testament to the high standards of teaching and learning across our school and set an inspiring benchmark for future Year 6 cohorts.

We are delighted to celebrate our pupils' success and are proud to share the following achievements:

Outstanding SATs Results

End of KS2 SATs Results	Quwwat-ul-Islam Girls' School 2025 - 2026	National Average 2025 - 2026
Grammar, Punctuation and spelling(GPS)	92%	74%
Reading	92%	75%
Maths	92%	75%
Writing	92%	73%
Percentage meeting the expected standard in reading, writing and maths (combined)	92%	63%

Year 6 Graduation

We say goodbye to our wonderful Year 6 students. We celebrated their time at Quwwat-UI-Islam Girls' School this week with a beautiful graduation ceremony. During the celebration the students were handed well deserved certificates and gifts by the teachers. We are proud of all our Year 6 students and excited for what the future holds as they embark on the next stage of their learning journey.

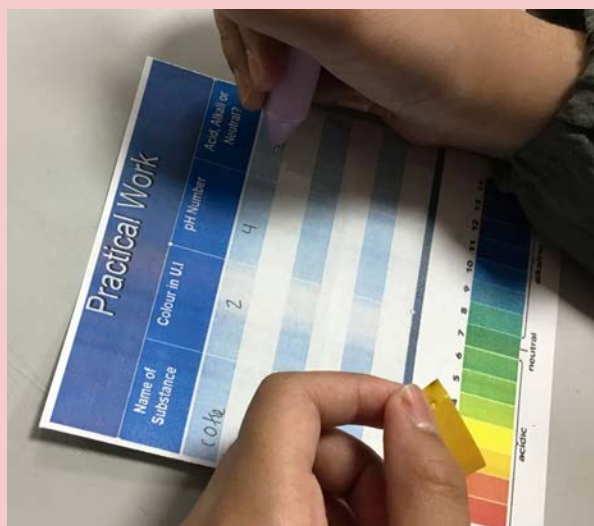

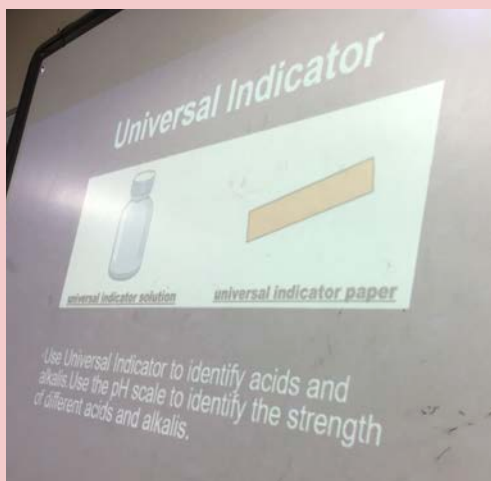

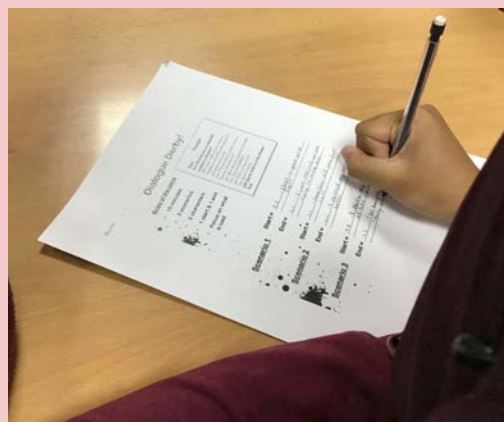

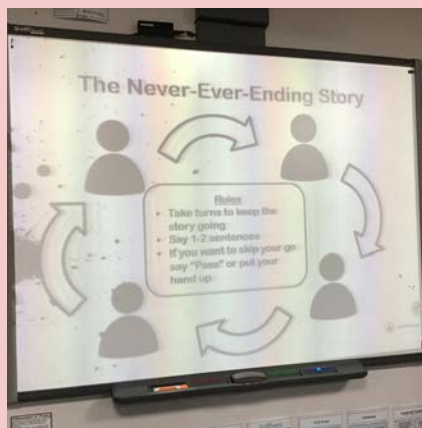

To our Year 6s - On behalf of Quwwat-UI-Islam Girls' School, we wish you all the very best for your next chapter. May you continue to strive to be the best in everything that you choose to do. Surround yourself with friends who will positively influence and encourage you to work hard in school, persevere through new and difficult challenges and keep making good choices.

Year 7 taster morning

We were delighted to welcome our prospective Year 7 students for a Taster Morning. They enjoyed taking part in a range of fun and engaging lessons, meeting their teachers, and getting to know their future classmates.

It was a wonderful opportunity for students to experience life at our school and prepare for the exciting journey ahead. We look forward to welcoming them again soon!

Primary and Secondary end of year trips

To celebrate the end of a fantastic year, each phase enjoyed a special trip. KS1 had a wonderful day exploring and playing at Kidspace, while KS2 had lots of fun bouncing and taking on challenges at Flip Out. Our Secondary students enjoyed an exciting day out in Southend, making the most of the rides in Adventure Island and spending time together. These trips were a great way to celebrate the students' hard work and achievements throughout the year, creating many happy memories to end the school year.

Transition Afternoon

Yesterday, all of our Primary students, including EYFS, met their new teachers during our annual Transition Afternoon.

The purpose of the afternoon was to help prepare students for the new academic year, allowing them to become familiar with their new classroom environments, meet their new teachers, and ease any anxieties or nerves they may have about moving into a new year group.

Students spent time getting to know their new class teachers and were introduced to some of the exciting topics they will be exploring throughout the year. To further support their preparation, summer homework has also been assigned via Google Classroom.

Alhamdulillah, our students thoroughly enjoyed their afternoon with their new teachers. We pray that Allah grants them a successful, enjoyable, and beneficial academic year ahead. Ameen.

Year 11 GCSEs

We are so very proud of our Year 11 students who have worked exceptionally hard throughout KS4 in order to prepare for their GCSE exams in Year 11. We have watched them develop and mature into such fantastic young adults over the past 5 years. Not only have they developed academically but they have also developed personally into well-rounded individuals. Having worked so hard for so many years preparing for their GCSE exams, we wish them all the best with their GCSE results which will be received on Thursday 20th August 2026.

Islam in Europe Exhibition

As with last year, AMS is pleased to support the Islam in Europe Exhibition and encourages all students, families and staff to take advantage of this valuable educational opportunity.

The exhibition will be open to the public on Saturday 18th July and Sunday 19th July. We warmly encourage families to visit and explore the rich history and contributions of Islam in Europe.

Schools are also welcome to arrange visits on Monday 20th July. If you would like to book a school visit or request a guided tour, please contact the organisers directly via the Gardens of Jannah Trust contact page:

<https://www.gardensofjannahtrust.co.uk/contact-8>

We hope many of our families will enjoy this informative exhibition. Please feel free to share this invitation with friends and family to help ensure this important history continues to be remembered.
